Regarding implementation of the investigation of the fracture zone in the site of Ohi Nuclear Power Station, Kansai Electric Power Co., Ltd., by “Expert Meeting on the investigation of the fracture zone in the site of Ohi Nuclear Power Station”

The Nuclear Regulation Authority will conduct the site investigation of the fracture zone in the site of Ohi Nuclear Power Station, Kansai Electric Power Co., Ltd. as follows.

The implementation status of the site investigation will be reported in the evaluation meeting (Nov. 4) of the “Expert Meeting on the investigation of the fracture zone in the site of Ohi Nuclear Power Station”.

1. Date of the investigation
   From 9:00 to 17:00, Friday, November 2, 2012

2. Site of the investigation
   Ohi Nuclear Power Station, Kansai Electric Power Co., Ltd.

3. Members for the investigation
   Kunihiko Shimazaki
       NRA commissioner, NRA Acting Chairman
   Atsumasa Okada
       Professor, Ritsumeikan Global Innovation Research Organization (Historical city emergency preparedness research center)
   Norio Shigematsu
       Chief researcher, Active Faust and Earthquake Research Center, Advanced Industrial Science and Technology
   Daisuke Hirouchi
       Associate Professor, Department of Education, Sinshu University
   Mitsuhisa Watanabe
       Professor, Department of Sociology, Toyo University
*Although the site investigation will be conducted even in rainy weather, it might be canceled in case of typhoon, etc. and in that case, the cancelation will be announced on the NRA web page, etc.

(Contact Person)
Mr. Mamoru Maeoka
Policy Review and Public Affairs Division,
Nuclear Regulation Authority
Phone:+81-(0)3-5114-2107